Subject: Annual Machine Inspection Requirements for ANSI Specification JLG Mobile Elevating Work Platforms

JLG Industries, Inc. (“JLG”) requires that an annual machine inspection (AMI) be accomplished on JLG equipment in accordance with the applicable ANSI/SAIA Standard in effect at the time.

ANSI/SAIA A92.22 states the following as pertaining to the completion of an Annual Machine Inspection:

“Owners shall ensure an annual inspection is performed no later than thirteen (13) months from the date of the prior annual inspection. The inspection shall be performed by a person qualified to inspect the specific make and model of MEWP. The inspection shall include all items included in the frequent inspection plus items specified by the manufacturer for an annual inspection, to include manufacturer’s bulletins. The inspection shall verify that the MEWP is registered with the MEWP manufacturer and that any open safety-related bulletins are addressed as part of the inspection. The MEWP shall not be placed back into service until all malfunctions and problems identified in the inspection have been corrected.”

JLG recommends that a Factory Trained Service Technician performs the AMI’s however ANSI/SAIA requires the inspection be performed by a person qualified to inspect the specific make and model MEWP. ANSI/SAIA defines a qualified person as:

“Person who, by possession of a recognized degree, certificate or professional standing, or by extensive knowledge, training and experience, has successfully demonstrated his/her ability to solve or resolve problems related to the subject matter, the work or the project.”

It is the owner’s discretion based on ANSI’s definition to determine if the mechanic is qualified to perform an AMI. JLG recognizes a Factory-Trained Service Technician as a person who has successfully completed the JLG Service Training for the specific JLG product model.

AMI inspection forms are available from JLG via JLG’s website, www.jlg.com, or the JLG Online Express system.

Sincerely,
