

Be Ready for What's Next With JLG Financial and Section 179

What if you could significantly cut the cost of equipping your business to meet the needs of a rapidly changing marketplace? Taking advantage of your IRS Section 179 deduction before December 31st can save you more than 20% on equipment you acquire this year.

Section 179 allows you to deduct up to $1,080,000 in new equipment, used equipment, and software. With this valuable tax benefit and a customized finance plan from JLG Financial, you can affordably put it all to work for your business in the fourth quarter and offset the cost with a substantial tax benefit the next time you file.

How could Section 179 impact your bottom line? Here are some examples using this year's Section 179 rules and a typical 21% tax rate:

Equipment Invoice Cost	Section 179 Deduction	Bonus Depreciation Deduction	Normal 1 st Year Depreciation	Total 1 st Year Deduction	Tax Savings	Effective Equipment Cost
$25,000	$25,000	$0	$0	$25,000	$5,250	$19,750
$100,000	$100,000	$0	$0	$100,000	$21,000	$79,000
$300,000	$300,000	$0	$0	$300,000	$63,000	$237,000
$1,200,000	$1,080,000	$120,000	$0	$1,200,000	$252,000	$948,000
